Remarks: George COCHRAN opened the meeting by explaining the aims of V.S.C. and then followed by a general denunciation of American aggression in Vietnam.

Kenneth MURRAY gave a long and sometimes heated discourse on imperialist aggression and stated that Russia was now an imperialist country. He then attacked the British and American capitalist governments and stated that they would be overthrown by the workers.

Johnathan EVANS gave a very ineffectual talk also on American aggression in Vietnam but spoke so quietly at times that it was difficult to hear him.

Jarius BANNERJEE spoke briefly but skillfully on the theory of revolution and touched only briefly on Vietnam.

Ajoy GHOSE was only given a short time to speak before the Chairman closed the meeting. He spoke on Black Power and stated that both black and white people could form a united front against American aggression in Vietnam.
