MAY DAY PICNIC

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "On Monday, 19th March 1979, between 8pm and 10pm, at the Metropolitan Public House, Farringdon Road, EC1, a meeting of anarchists was held to discuss the arrangements for this year's anarchist May Day picnic.

3. Only eight persons attended and these were mainly London Workers Group members. The first part of the evening was devoted to deciding the venue for the picnic and it was eventually agreed that this should be in Highgate Woods, starting at 2pm.

4. Dave MORRIS said that he would organise the publicity and that the Anarchy Collective would provide the maypole. In addition, Privacy promised that he would brew some beer for the occasion.

5. In conclusion, it was agreed to hold a final organising meeting on Monday, 23rd April 1979, again at the Metropolitan Public House, Farringdon Road, EC1."

6. Persons identified as being present:-
