Our ref. 335/71/16

1. Information has been received from a delicate and reliable source that members of Sinn Fein, the Irish Republican Movement in this country, intend to post pickets outside the following buildings on Saturday 26 June 1971 to show their disapproval of Ireland's application to join the Common Market.

Ireland House, 150 New Bond Street, W1.
Aer Lingus, 223 Regent Street, W1.
Irish Embassy, 17 Grosvenor Place, SW1.

2. No indication has yet been received of the probable numbers of persons who will take part, but it is likely that they will be small; any further information concerning this matter which comes to hand will be passed to you immediately.

Date 23/7/71 initials

14 day of June 19 71.

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "A meeting of the Terence McSWEENEY Cumann of Sinn Fein was held at the Westcott Lodge, Lower Mall, Hammersmith, W6, between 8.30 pm and 9.30 pm on Thursday 10 June 1971. As there were only four persons present the meeting was informal. The reason for the poor attendence was the inclement weather and that some members had gone to Ireland for the Wolfe TONE Commemoration ceremonies being held at Bodenstown on Sunday 13 June 1971.

3. Privacy told the meeting that it had been decided, at the Comhairle Ceanntar held on Sunday 6 June 1971, that on Saturday 26 June 1971 poster pickets would be put on the following Irish Republic buildings in London: The Irish Embassy, Aer Lingus Offices, and 130 Bond St. (believed to be an Irish shop). The members of the Terence McSWEENEY Cumann would be responsible for manning the picket of Aer Lingus. Tony KEARNS and Privacy who were in Ireland would bring back posters for the picket. The object of the pickets was to show Sinn Fein's disapproval of Ireland entering the Common Market.

4. The June issue of 'An Phoblacht' was distributed at the meeting.

5. The following persons are known to have attended the meeting:-
