IF ANY PERSON DISOBEYS THIS ORDER, THE MATTER MAY BE CERTIFIED TO THE HIGH COURT WHICH MAY HOLD THAT PERSON TO BE IN CONTEMPT OF THE INQUIRY AND THAT PERSON MAY BE IMPRISONED, FINED OR HAVE THEIR ASSETS SEIZED

ANY PERSON WHO KNOWS OF THIS ORDER AND DOES ANYTHING WHICH HELPS OR PERMITS ANY PERSON TO BREACH THE TERMS OF THIS ORDER MAY ALSO AFTER CERTIFICATION TO THE HIGH COURT BE HELD TO BE IN CONTEMPT OF THE INQUIRY AND MAY BE IMPRISONED, FINED OR HAVE THEIR ASSETS SEIZED

RESTRICTION ORDER UNDER SECTION 19 OF THE INQUIRIES ACT 2005

UPON the Chairman having considered the evidence in support of the applications for anonymity by the witnesses using the ciphers 'Jaipur' and 'Karachi'

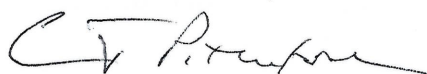

AND UPON considering an application made by the Metropolitan Police Service for a restriction order under section 19(1)(b) of the Inquiries Act 2005 of the parts of that evidence set out in the "Open Schedule of Reasons for Redactions" supplied as part of the application

AND WHEREAS that application seeks redaction pending the determination of the applications for anonymity, recognising that if anonymity is granted the public interest in some redactions will cease

AND UPON holding that the grounds upon which redaction is sought are not made out in all cases, but that in those cases where the grounds are not made out (a) the matters over which redaction is sought are not relevant to the applications for anonymity in respect of Jaipur and Karachi and (b) would require submissions from third parties or consideration of further submissions from the Metropolitan Police Service which would unnecessarily delay publication of the evidence

IT IS ORDERED THAT

1. The restriction order sought by the Metropolitan Police Service is granted under section 19(2)(b) of the Inquiries Act 2005:
 - a. Subject to paragraph (b), for the reasons set out in the "Open Schedule of Reasons for Redactions", the "Generic Open Grounds for Restrictions" and in a closed schedule of reasons; or
 - b. Where those grounds are not made out, because as a temporary measure it is conducive to the Inquiry fulfilling its terms of reference under section 19(3)(b) and prevents delay or impairment to the efficiency of the Inquiry under section 19(4)(d)(i).
2. Subject to paragraph 3, there shall be no disclosure or publication of any of the redacted information outside of the Inquiry team. For the avoidance of doubt, this order does not prevent the redacted information from being disclosed to employees of the Metropolitan Police Service who are required to know the information during the ordinary course of their employment and in order to fulfil the terms of that employment.
3. The recognised legal representative of the Metropolitan Police Service may apply to the Chairman for authorisation to disclose any or all of the redacted information to named individuals other than current employees of the Metropolitan Police Service as described at paragraph 2, to whom disclosure is considered to be necessary to enable their participation in the Inquiry.
4. In the event that Jaipur or Karachi or both of them are granted anonymity, the Inquiry will consider varying this order (which for the avoidance of doubt remains in force until such time as it is varied).
