

Inquiry's gist of additional information within the evidence supporting HN336's application for restriction order over real name only – provided to permit argument on facts that have not been considered by the Inquiry to date.

Amongst many posts that HN336 worked in within the Metropolitan Police Service following his SDS deployment were the following: the Industrial Intelligence Section and working at the ports.

HN336 featured in the True Spies documentary under the cyphered name of Dan.