

Gist of additional information within the evidence supporting HN45's application for restriction order over real name only -provided to permit argument on facts

Having been deployed as a UCO in the SDS in the 1970s, HN45 returned to the SDS in the 1980s in an administrative role for about 3 years. In this role, he attended safe houses and collected diaries from deployed UCOs. He would also sanitise intelligence reports ready for circulation to wider parts of the police.
