COUNSEL TO THE INQUIRY'S EXPLANATORY NOTE TO ACCOMPANY THE CHAIRMAN'S 'MINDED TO' NOTE 7 IN RESPECT OF APPLICATIONS FOR RESTRICTIONS OVER THE REAL AND COVER NAMES OF OFFICERS OF THE SPECIAL OPERATIONS SQUAD AND THE SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION SQUAD

UPDATE as at 28th March 2018

Introduction

1. On 3 August 2017, 23 October 2017, 15 November 2017, 15 January 2018, 25 January 2018, 7 March 2018, 22 March 2018 and 28 March 2018 the Chairman published 'Minded To' and 'Supplementary Minded To' notes regarding applications by the Metropolitan Police Service to the Inquiry for restriction orders regarding the real and/or cover names of a number of Special Demonstration Squad officers.

2. This is an update to Counsel's Explanatory Notes published on 3 August 2017, 15 November 2017, 15 January 2018, 25 January 2018, 7 March 2018 and 22 March 2018.

February tranche and additional SDS restriction order applications

3. The Minded To note 7 published on 28 March 2018 provides the Chairman's provisional indication in relation to one officer, HN155, whose application for a restriction order over his real name was received in the December tranche.

4. The Chairman invited and received oral submissions on this application at the hearing on 21 March 2018 and has now been able to reach a decision that he is minded to restrict HN155's real name. There is no application to restrict the cover name so that will be published.

5. Publication of this officer's open application, and, if necessary, the supporting evidence, will follow the publication of the cover name once the Inquiry has completed its usual pre-publication checks[1].

[1] The Inquiry routinely seeks to establish whether an officer used the identity of a deceased child as a cover name and, if so, to trace and contact the deceased child's surviving close relatives before making a cover name public. The Inquiry also seeks to trace and contact anyone known to have had an intimate relationship with the officer before making a cover name public.
