RESTRICTION ORDER UNDER SECTION 19 OF THE INQUIRIES ACT 2005

UPON the Chairman having considered an application dated 2 October 2018 for a restriction order in respect of the person here described as 'Sara';

AND UPON the Chairman being satisfied, for the reasons set out in the ruling dated XXXXX, that there would be a disproportionate interference with Sara's private life in the event of publication of Sara's real identity, or of the disclosure of Sara's real identity beyond that which is necessary to ensure the fulfilment of the Inquiry's terms of reference;

AND UPON the Chairman considering his power to make a restriction order under section 19(2)(b) of the Inquiries Act 2005 read with section 19(3) thereof;

IT IS ORDERED THAT until further order

1. This order binds all persons (whether acting by themselves or by their servants or agents or in any other way) and all companies (whether acting by their directors or officers, servants, agents, or in any other way).
2. There shall be no disclosure or publication made of any evidence or document given, produced or provided to the Inquiry which discloses Sara's true identity (including any description or image capable of identifying Sara).
3. There shall be no disclosure or publication made of any evidence or document given, produced or provided to the Inquiry which has the effect of disclosing Sara's true identity, or contributing to such disclosure, and which the person responsible for the disclosure or publication knows or suspects will have that effect.
4. This order does not prohibit any disclosure to:
 - a. Members of the Inquiry team;

- b. Members of Sara's approved legal team;
 - c. Any medical or healthcare professional consulted by Sara;
 - d. A person providing evidence to the Inquiry, whether written or oral, who had contact with Sara in connection with their service in a police force;
 - e. A person from whom evidence is sought by the Inquiry, whether written or oral, pertaining to the contents of a document which reveals the true identity of Sara (for example, a person who was or who is believed to have been the author or a recipient of such a document);
 - f. A person who, in the course of their current employment, is requested by the Inquiry, or on behalf of the Inquiry, to search for and/or make arrangements for the disclosure of documents to the Inquiry which contain reference to the true identity of Sara; or
 - g. The legal advisers to any person described at (d), (e), or (f) above, whose names will be notified in writing to the Inquiry in advance of any disclosure being made.
5. For the avoidance of doubt, any person to whom disclosure of the true identity of Sara is made in accordance with paragraph 4 above remains subject to the prohibitions at paragraphs 2 and 3 in relation to any onward disclosure or publication, save insofar as, and only to the extent that, such disclosure is made to another person or persons identified within paragraph 4.
6. Any person affected by any of the restrictions set out in paragraphs 2 and/or 3 above may apply to the Ghairman to vary this order.

Chairman, Undercover Policing
