Reasons

Section 17

5. Application of the statutory and common law principles of fairness require that the real identity of HN299/342's is not disclosed. The considerations which apply are highlighted below in relation to: ss.19(3)(a) and/or 19(3)(b) and s.19(4).

Section 19(3)(a) and Article 8

6. A restriction order protecting HN299/342's identity is required in order for the Inquiry to meet its duty under the Human Rights Act 1998 not to act in a way which is incompatible with a Convention right. The Convention right in issue is Article 8.
7. Disclosure of HN299/342's real name would amount to an unjustified and/or disproportionate interference with his right to private life. In particular, the objective effect of disclosure is set out at §19 of the Risk Assessment. The level of risk posed by this interference with HN299/342's private life is set out in the Risk Assessment at §19. It is reasonable to infer that there would be some public interest in HN299/342 by virtue of his status as a former UCO.

Section 19(3)(b) and s19(4)

8. The Chairman is invited to find that a Restriction Order protecting HN299/342 real identity is conducive to the Inquiry fulfilling its Terms of Reference or is necessary in the public interest having regard in particular to the factors set out at s.19(4) of the Act read together with the Chairman's approach at [152] of the Principles Ruling:

"...when considering whether to make an order restricting disclosure of any relevant particular piece of information on public interest grounds I will be required to:

- (1) identify the public interest in non-disclosure;*
- (2) assess the risk and level of harm to the public interest that would follow disclosure of that information;*
- (3) identify the public interest in disclosure;*
- (4) assess the risk and level of harm to the public interest that would follow non-disclosure of that information;*
- (5) make in respect of that information a fact sensitive assessment of the position at which the public interest balance should rest".*

The public interest in non-disclosure of real identity

9. The following public interest factors are pertinent:
 - a. It is in the public interest for HN299/342's real identity to be restricted on the basis that it would avoid or reduce the risk of causing harm to this officer namely physical harm, psychological harm and/or interference with their private life. The evidential basis for this is the at §19 of the Risk Assessment; and
 - b. HN299/342 has respected the confidentiality of his work and has relied on his anonymity as a source of protection and security.

The public interest in disclosure of real identity

10. The MPS appreciates that the public interest in openness is a factor which weighs against the making of a Restriction Order in HN299/342's case. However, the MPS submits that there is no identifiable public interest in disclosure of HN299/342's real name in circumstances where the real name will not assist the Inquiry in fulfilling its Terms of Reference or assist Core Participants or witnesses who would not have known HN299/342's by his real name.

Where the public interest balance lies

11. The MPS has considered the Chairman's Principles Ruling and has had particular regard to the importance of openness in the Public Inquiry.
12. In all the circumstances, the MPS makes this application for a Restriction Order over HN299/342's real name on the bases of fairness, and to avoid a risk or serious disproportionate interference with HN299/342's right to private life under Article 8. The MPS submits such an application is in the public interest and conducive to the Inquiry's terms of reference.
