Prior to the Chairman introducing the speakers, an unidentified man named Privacy aged about 25 years, 5'7", slim build, thin pale face, short brown straight hair, spoke briefly about a strike, mainly by coloured workers at Injection Moulders, Honey Pot Lane, Kingsbury. He appealed for as many persons as possible to attend a march by strikers from the factory at 6.30 p.m. on Thursday 8th August 1968, to the Kingsbury Baths where a meeting is to be held at 7.0 p.m.

This same man Privacy also referred to a proposed demonstration due to take place at the Warner Cinema, Leicester Square, on Thursday August 8th 1968, re the film 'The Green Beret'. He suggested that as many persons as possible should enter the cinema as ordinary cinema-goers and demonstrate inside.

Injection Moulders 400/49/320.
'Green Beret' 400/68/37-22A.

1st. Speaker Privacy She repeatedly claimed to be a Marxist, and her talk was laced with quotations from LENIN. She gave the history of the American negro from the time of his arrival in America to the present time.

2nd Speaker Privacy Gave the history of the negro in the trade union movement in America. He had a poor knowledge of English and most of his speech was unintelligible.

Questions were asked from the floor but nothing of interest to Special Branch arose from this.

It was stated by Privacy that any money left over from the collection after paying for the meeting room would go to the strike fund of the Injection Moulders strike.

A telephone message was sent to Chief Supt. Special Branch (copy to A8) re the forthcoming meetings.
