Remarks: MANCHANDA and Privacy attacked the decision to participate in the C.N.D. Easter March, both claiming that it was "grossly incorrect politically to have taken part in association with such a dead organisation as C.N.D." They both congratulated those present, however, for the part they played in Trafalgar Square in welcoming Madam BINH and for displaying "militant solidarity with the heroic Vietnamese people and their valiant struggle against the U.S. imperialists."

Some time was taken up with discussion concerning the organisations which have expressed support for the New Convention of the Left. All speakers adopted the line that it appeared to be a last ditch attempt to divert general opinion away from "the inevitable swing towards the thoughts of Chairman Mao." "B"

It was announced at the closing of the meeting that B.V.S.F. supported the London R.S.S.F.'s moves to arrange a general students' strike on May 1st, and also a torch light procession and rally in London which they intended to hold on the evening of that day. No further details were announced. "C"
