The whole tone of this meeting was previous group's meetings, in as much as there the usual noisy disturbance. [redacted] street meetings and the discussion of [redacted] in the October 20th meeting [redacted] have CHAMM attempted to defend the [redacted] and was verbally [redacted] by [redacted] mentioned that groups of [redacted] within the [redacted] [redacted] for [redacted]
 the demonstration, 2) to 'look after' the [redacted] police - i.e. the stewards 3) as to [redacted]
 what was to be done on the [redacted] [redacted]
 it was done, and pass the work to other [redacted]

MURRAY then explained at some length [redacted] actual facts of [redacted] [redacted] Square which is symbolic of [redacted]
 such buildings as the City Bank, [redacted] and Greek tourist offices.

CHAMM at this point agreed [redacted]
 that he could not understand the [redacted] Square as a target when these [redacted]
 laden with imperialist goods [redacted]
 He said 'Let's crack a few windows.'

MURRAY stated that he was going [redacted]
 Friday 4th October in order to [redacted] through various parts of entry and [redacted] hosts. He stated he would be returning on [redacted]

An un-identified male person suggested [redacted]
 the Cuban and Chinese embassy staff to [redacted] march as they had diplomatic immunity and could [redacted] they liked to police. However this suggestion [redacted] favourably received.
