SPECIAL BRANCH

17 March

72

day of 19

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. On Thursday 16 March 1972, Croydon Branch of the International Socialists held a branch meeting at Raskin House, Coombe Road, Croydon. It began at 8.00pm, ended at 10.00pm.

3. Most of the meeting was devoted to a discussion on the recent raids by Special Branch on the homes of four IS members in connection with the IRA bomb incident at Aldershot. It was generally agreed Special Branch would not be so politically naive or misinformed as to suspect IS members and that the incident was simply being exploited by the police so as to gain information on IS members and "wave the big stick."

4. The following were present:-
