3. There was a long discussion on the proposed series of talks (Special Branch report of 18 September refers) and it was decided that the first would be on 15.10.70 when, it was hoped, Privacy would talk on 'Israel'. The talks will be fortnightly from 15.10.70 until 8.12.70 and the subjects to be covered will include 'Black Power' (speaker not yet known); 'Ireland' (Gary LAWLESS); 'Trade Unions' ( Privacy ); and 'Death of the New Left' ( Privacy ); the order of the talks will be arranged later. On 15.12.70 Privacy will lecture on 'Why the 4th International'.

4. A short discussion followed on the current Middle East situation. It was also announced that on Saturday 26.9.70 there would be a demonstration from Speakers Corner organised by the Union of Palestine Students and the Spartacus League and possibly supported by IS.

The following were known to be present:-

BOX 500

6. Special Branch references to the persons mentioned are contained in an appendix to this report.
