1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "It has been arranged that the Irish Solidarity Campaign (ISC) Conference to be held in Oxford on the weekend of 29/30 April 1972 may be attended by six elected delegates from each ISC branch, together with as many independent observers as wish to attend. Any organization which actively supports and uses the slogans of the ISC may send six delegates plus observers. Any other accredited political organisations will be limited to two delegates each.

3. This move is apparently aimed at ensuring the domination of the ISC. As a result it is anticipated that little interest will be displayed in the conference by other political groups".
