Privacy

3. The meeting was opened by Privacy who chaired the proceedings. Privacy read the minutes of the previous meeting. Privacy constantly interrupted and criticised them and this led to a heated discussion which lasted until 9 pm.

4. Privacy eventually regained control of the meeting and insisted that the study programme commence. As a result Privacy read passages from 'Quotations from Engels on the Women Question'. This continued until 10.30 pm and included some discussion on the passages read.

BOX 500

5. Privacy then left the meeting. The remainder then discussed at some length the 'disruptive behaviour' of Privacy and her 'group'."

6. Special Branch references are given in the attached Appendix.
