1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. A meeting of the North West London committee of Stop the Seventy Four was held on Wednesday, 29 July 1970, at Friends Meeting House, Heath Street, Hampstead, NW3 from 8pm to 10pm. There were some 20 persons present; the Chairman was Privacy

3. Privacy opened the meeting with a report on the latest developments concerning the STST movement. She announced that the organisation would not entirely amalgamate with Anti-apartheid, but hoped that AA would assume responsibility for publishing leaflets and educational literature and that STST would provide the militant action. She went on to say that STST would for the present be referred to as North and North West London Action Committee Against Racism and its objectives were to prevent the sale of armaments to South Africa and to oppose Racism. She informed the meeting that various members had been selected to serve on sub-committees:-

- Publicity
 - Community Action
 - Fund Raising
 - Trade Unions
- Privacy

4. Privacy stated that Peter HAIN was reluctant to be elected as Chairman as he wished to avoid a personality cult developing and that Privacy would cease to be national co-ordinator.

5. Privacy informed the meeting that the Labour Party would be holding a rally in Trafalgar Square on 6 September 1970. On Saturday, 1 August 1970, at 2.30 pm at 37 Broadhurst Gardens, NW6, a meeting organised by the 'Young Socialists' would take place to discuss the leafletting of all South African airline offices and legations and to organise a mass demonstration at Heathrow Airport on either 16/17 August.

6. The next meeting of the North and North West London Action Committee Against Racism will be held on Tuesday, 8 September 1970, at 7.30 pm at Privacy (home address of Privacy) Privacy.

7. Among the persons present were the following:-

8. Special Branch references to the persons mentioned are contained in the attached appendix.
