1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "On Friday 6 October 1972 Privacy completed his three months probationary period Privacy with British Rail. He was then 'sacked' for poor time-keeping and absenteeism.

3. He is currently unemployed and it is unlikely he will attempt to seek further work for the next two months. He is deeply involved in the activities of the London Alliance and is going to devote all his time to their publications and meetings."
