Reference to Papers 400/71/243

2. "Although the Red Defence Force continues to exist, (on paper at least), it has not yet been called upon by the IMG to marshal any demonstrations. A lack of an ideal demonstration is said to be the prime reason for this.

3. It was originally stated that combat training was on the curriculum for the IMG 1971 Summer camp and further training was supposed to have been given this year. However, the 1972 Summer camp has been cancelled due to the lack of an organiser and no such training has taken place."
