1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "On Friday, 10 September 1971, at the George IV P.H., Pentonville Road, N1, a meeting was held by the Black Defence Committee. The meeting, which was attended by twelve persons, began at 8 pm and ended at 10 pm. The only speaker was Carl BRECKER, a coloured South African student.

3. BRECKER recounted his experiences under apartheid. He was bitterly opposed to the South African regime and called for solidarity in the fight against that "hideous system". If the workers of the world, both black and white, united, then apartheid must surely tumble for that system was only propped-up by the capitalist interests of the Western world.

4. Following this a general debate on the problem was held, but nothing of particular interest emerged.
