TITLE:      PUBLIC ORDER

April 1999 represents the 20th anniversary of the death of Blair PEACH in Southall during an anti-nazi demonstration. To help commemorate this event, local trade unions are organising a large rally and demonstration, which will be presented with a strong anti-racist/anti-police flavour.

The temporary organising committee have approached Celia STUBBS, PEACHE's ex girlfriend to help promote the event which she has reluctantly agreed to do.

SOURCE COMMENT

The event will inevitably attract a large left wing presence with particular accent on anti-police type groups and the potential for disorder will be significant.
