SUBJECT

Hammersmith and Fulham AIL

Reference to Papers 400/72/42

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:

2. "On Monday 8 May 1972 at 8 pm at Westcott Lodge, public house, Hammersmith W6 a meeting was held by the Hammersmith and Fulham Branch of the Anti-Internment League. Fifteen persons attended.

3. The meeting was chaired by Privacy, aged about 23 years, of Privacy. The secretary was Privacy of Privacy.

4. The minutes of the previous week's meeting were read, and then the business of the day began. Privacy, aged about 22 years, of Privacy a third-year student of economics at Privacy Technical College, and branch treasurer, announced that he was relinquishing that post. An unidentified member was duly elected in his place.

5. Privacy a member of Acton IS, suggested that in order to keep in line with other branches of the AIL, a full and comprehensive publication should be produced by the branch for sale to the general public. This was met with much enthusiasm, and suggestions as to its content were put from the floor. It was decided that the first issue of 'Irish Struggle', the proposed title of the bulletin, should contain three main features, namely: 'Treatment of Internees in Northern Ireland', 'The Widgery Report,' and 'The Consequences of Direct Rule.'

6. An Editorial Board was duly elected, comprising Privacy, Privacy (member of Acton IS), Privacy, Privacy, Privacy and Privacy of Privacy a representative from Sinn Fein. The Board would meet every Sunday night at the home address of Privacy.

7. At 10 pm the meeting was brought to a close."

8. The following were among those present:
