1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "On Sunday, 24 January 1971, between 1930 hours and 2230 hours, a private meeting of the Irish National Liberation Solidarity Front was held in an upstairs room at the 'Marquis of Clanricarde' Public House, Sussex Gardens, W2. The meeting was chaired by [Privacy] and there were 21 persons present.

3. The meeting opened with an apology from [Privacy] at the absence of Ed DAVOREN who was "away for a week".

4. [Privacy] gave the sales figures of the 'Irish Liberation Press' over the past week; sales had amounted to £84, £16 short of the target of £100 a week. During the weekend he and other members had gone to Birmingham and Coventry and had sold about 500 copies. Members would be selling the paper in the coming week and on Thursday, 28 January, they would stick 5000 posters in the London area protesting at the imprisonment of Irish Political Prisoners in English prisons. (No details given).

5. There followed a film on the Spanish Civil War showing how the workers of Spain had united to fight the menace of Fascism. Discussion on the implications of the film ensued after which Norman TEMPLE, who took a prominent role in DAVOREN's absence, read extracts from the 'Thoughts of Chairman Mao'.

6. At the conclusion [Privacy] directed a member (unidentified) to attend Conway Hall on Friday, 29 January to report on a speech to be given by [Privacy] on his recent visit to China.

7. The following persons were identified as having attended the meeting:-

[Privacy] Norman TEMPLE".
