PART I To be completed by the DETECTIVE INSPECTOR

PEN PICTURE Please include recommendations for employment, training and suitability for any expressed job preference.

D.C. HN344's organisational ability and diligence have been of inestimable value during the past year while on specialist employment. He is eager to broaden his operational experience, which - through no fault of his own - is somewhat limited at present, and here the specialised knowledge acquired during the past year should stand him in very good stead. A certain tendency to immaturity in his approach to working relationships and in his reaction to just criticism (particularly as this is so seldom called for) should, it is felt, disappear with time and experience. Conversely, his youthful enthusiasm is most refreshing, and should be preserved by varying his employment at suitable intervals.

REMARKS Please include impressions from an appraisal interview and comments on the officer's objectives for the coming year, contributions to Force activities and social work.

A most enthusiastic and balanced young officer, DC HN344¹¹ is keen to learn, and participates in, all aspects of Special Branch work. For the past year, whilst engaged on important work of a non-operational nature; he has nevertheless volunteered regularly to carry out enquiries and take part in operations outside his normal hours of duty. When this keenness is matched with more maturity and experience, he will be a very good prospect indeed.
