

Cover Sheet

The following information is recorded in the contemporaneous MPS Central Record of Service for Richard Clark:

1. He joined the MPS on 26 June 1967.
2. He was single when he joined the MPS but later married (on a date unknown).
3. He joined Special Branch on 26 October 1970 in the rank of Constable.
4. He held the following ranks:
  - (i) Sergeant or 2nd Class (CID) – promoted on 17 November 1975, having passed the qualifying exam on 8 January 1972;
  - (ii) Detective Inspector – promoted on 6 May 1986.
5. He received two DAC Commendations during his MPS career for work unrelated to the SDS; the first was awarded in 1972 and the second in 1988. He also received a Police Long Service and Good Conduct Medal in 1989.
6. He retired from the MPS following 31 years' service. He held the rank of Detective Inspector on retirement. His conduct was certified as exemplary.