2. "The South East London District Committee of the International Socialists have at last decided to affiliate to the South East London branch of the Troops Out Movement. This follows the normal practice of IS in only supporting existing branches and not assisting in the formation of new ones. It must be concluded therefore, that IS now regard South East London TUM as a viable proposition. In a letter from [Privacy], the District Secretary of IS, to the secretary of South East London TUM, he stated that three members of IS, [Privacy], [Privacy] and [Privacy] had been delegated to attend future branch meetings."
