100/74/25

2. "The National Committee of the International Socialists has contacted each IS branch secretary to ascertain the names of people within IS having legal experience or 'know how to handle relations with the Police'. This request has come as a result of charges pending against IS comrades in Glasgow, York and Hull for 'flyposting', and a recent Police raid on the home of the Harlow branch secretary.

3. If enough members come forward to give their advice on legal matters, then an IS Lawyers Group will be formed. Their work will also include giving assistance to trade unionists who clash with the law on pickets, marches and demonstrations."
