2. On Wednesday, 14 July 1976, at 8 pm at Princess May Junior School, Kingsland Road, N16 the Hackney Branch of the International Socialists held a public meeting entitled "Black Workers in Struggle - Jamaica - Africa - Britain". The chairperson was Anita GLUCKSTEIN (Mrs Tony CLIFF) and about 80 persons were present.

3. Although the meeting had been advertised as having two speakers, namely Nigel HARRIS and Rod REYNOLDS, only HARRIS was present as REYNOLDS had been obliged to return to unexpectedly. HARRIS spoke eloquently for in excess of one hour, dealing at some length with the recent outbreaks of racialism in various continents. His speech was well received by the audience.

4. HARRIS then answered several questions from the floor before the meeting was opened for general discussion. Nothing of particular interest to Special Branch arose from this session.

5. After a short tirade against those persons in the audience who were not members of the International Socialists, the chairperson closed the meeting at 10 pm.

6. The following persons were identified as having attended the meeting:-
