SUBJECT: RMLL

6 pages
REF. 642188

31 day of March 1971

1. The following information has been received from a reliable, but delicate source:-

2. "On Sunday, 28 March 1971 at 58 Lisburne Road, NW3, MANCHANDA's address, a private meeting of the RMLL was held from 3 pm to 8 pm and attended by 18 persons.

3. The proceedings took the form of an informal discussion with MANCHANDA in the chair, the purpose being to search for a common premise and approach to the present crisis in the RMLL.

4. MANCHANDA read from a five page foolscap prepared speech (copy attached) in which he gave his personal view of the growth of the RMLL, the reasons for the present crisis within the organisation and his remedy for dealing with it. He referred in great detail to his memorandum of 9 March (previously submitted); he excused his own shortcomings by blaming the state of his health and he attacked certain other members, particularly for laziness in their work within the organisation. He did, however, make an offer "to work in co-operation with others according to his capacity" (this was something of a volte-face from his attitude at the previous meeting).

5. Privacy himself was in a conciliatory mood but the calm was shattered by the onslaught on MANCHANDA's character by Privacy and Privacy - the latter accused MANCHANDA of being a fraud and during the course of the heated arguments that ensued she twice offered her resignation (notwithstanding her formal resignation at the previous meeting).

6. No progress was made in the subjects for discussion and the differences between the two main factions were unreconciled. Eventually it was decided to hold a further meeting on Sunday 4 April 1971 in an attempt to resolve the deadlock.

7. It is now apparent that MANCHANDA is being supported in his struggle by his wife, Sonia SEEDO, Privacy (phonetic), Privacy Ranged against them in an uneasy alliance are the Privacy Privacy have so far not committed themselves to either faction."
