3. As the meeting took place soon after arriving back from the Delegate Conference held at Beaver Hall, Garlick Hill, ECH, that day, the principle item of discussion was naturally the conference itself and the change in Party policy, (separately reported).

4. The discussion then moved to the campaign to oust Sir PREMICE as the local Member of Parliament. Privacy said that Privacy had visited Privacy and was of the opinion that nothing could be done with him, which Privacy confirmed. Privacy then stated that Privacy was a good example of how people had responded to the situation. When he was first visited he was quite good but he was still only a moderate. Privacy had, however, reluctantly conceded that changes in course had only been achieved by revolution and had agreed to take the 'Workers Press' for a trial period. If he could be persuaded to join the Party, he would not be able to attend branch meetings. It would have to be kept secret so that the WRP could build up a cell in the local Labour Party and someone would have to take reports from him. Privacy told Privacy that he should keep in contact with Privacy and act as the go-between.

5. The remainder of the meeting dealt with a summer fair to be held on Saturday 26 July and a public meeting (with film) on 'Portugal' on Thursday 24 July at Latham School, Clements Road, East Ham, E 6.
