2. "Members of the Spartacist League and the Lenin Faction, recently expelled from the Workers Socialist League, have been working together in Sheffield and Sheerness during the past few weeks in connection with the steel strike. Despite this co-operation, the expected fusion between the two groups has not yet been finalised and it is believed some problem may have arisen between them preventing this taking place. However, it is not anticipated that any such difficulty will cause more than a temporary delay in their union."
