SUBJECT

Special Report

Reference to Papers

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. The North-West London Socialist Workers Party has recently taken occupation of premises on the top floor of Lansfield Building, Beethoven Street, W10, at the junction of Dart Street, W10, for use as a District Centre. The property has been provided by the Brent Community Housing Association at a monthly rent of only £10. The premises comprise a small room, used as an office, which they share with BCHA, and a larger room to be used for SWP meetings and socials. Printing equipment has already been installed in the new centre.

3. The BCHA has, over the past 12 months, provided 'short-life' accommodation for about 20 SWP members in the SW London area."

4. The Brent Community Housing Association has previously come to the notice of the Branch.
