Special Report

SPECIAL BRANCH

5th day of December 1980

SUBJECT

1. The following information has been received from a search and delicate source which must be protected:

2. "On Saturday 6th December, 1980 at 10.30am outside the Royal Artillery Barracks, Woolwich, SE18 various local left-wing groups including members of the South East London District of the Socialist Workers Party are planning to hold a peaceful picket in support of the Irish hunger strikers. Those attending have been asked to gather outside the King's Arms public house, Hill Reach, SE18 beforehand. It is anticipated that about thirty persons will participate in the picket which will last for about an hour."

3. It must be stressed that the organisers have decided not to inform police but to notify the local press late on Friday (the 5th).
