1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "On Saturday, 18 February, 1978 between 10am and 12 noon, at King Street, W6, the West London Anti-Nazi League held a picket to protest against the National Front, who were engaged in selling newspapers in the same locality. There were about twenty Anti-Nazi League demonstrators present and two members of the National Front. However, with uniformed police in attendance, the picket passed off peacefully.

3. Afterwards it was decided to cancel the similar, but larger, Anti-Nazi League demonstration of some 200 people in the same street on Saturday, 25 February, 1978 (as previously reported), in favour of concentrating efforts at the anti-National Front demonstration in Ilford later that day. A token picket, however, will still be held in the morning in King Street, W6, between 10am and 11.30am."
