

Special Report

SPECIAL BRANCH S.D.S.

24th day of February 19 77

SUBJECT

Zero Collective

Reference to Papers

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source :-
2. "A recently formed group of anarchists and libertarians, who call themselves the Zero Collective, are planning to publish a new anarcho-libertarian newspaper along the lines of the defunct publication Wildcat.
3. The Collective is made up of associates of the Anarchy Collective of 29 Grosvenor Avenue, N5, ex Wildcat people and others from Solidarity and Social Revolution, although at present the instigators are not known by name.
4. The Zero Collective is currently engaged upon a fund raising campaign (it needs £200 for the first edition) and, as may have been anticipated, it is not finding this task at all easy."
5. The Zero Collective has not previously come to the notice of Special Branch.
