4. A district call-out would be necessary for the picket to be held outside Harlesden Police Station from 6pm to 8pm on 10.10.79, the eve of the opening of the inquest into the death of Blair PEACH. A similar picket would be held by Kilburn and Queens Park Anti-Nazi League members, outside Kilburn Police Station, from 10pm to midnight on the same night.

5. It was decided that Privacy would act as liaison officer for all the groups in the district that had been formed to fight the public service cuts.

6. It was announced that the National Front would be holding an Anti-IRA march from Charing Cross starting at 1.30pm on 6.10.79. The ANL would be holding a counter-demo meeting at the same time outside Charing Cross Station. All SWP members in London would be expected to attend. It was decided that a leaflet would be produced to distribute around the Irish public houses in Kilburn, Cricklewood, Acton and Harlesden on the eve of the demonstration of enemies.

7. Privacy claimed that he had booked a minibus to take him and a party of National Union of School Student members around the schools of the area, to distribute leaflets complaining about the planned education cuts.
