Anti-Police Bill demonstration

Reference to Papers

1. The following information has been received from a secret and reliable source :
2. "With reference to the Anti-Police Bill demonstration beginning at Brock Hill Park, South London on Saturday 21st January 1984, the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) has instructed its branches outside London to send student members and Socialist Workers Student Society (SWSS) members on coaches already booked by other student organisations, in order to sell papers. London branches are called on to send their banners to the demonstration and to provide two paper sellers from each branch, who are to attend by 11.30 am."
