Federation of London Anarchist Groups

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-
2. Following another period of declining attendance, the Federation of London Anarchist Groups (FLAG) is threatened with extinction. Its present secretary, [Redacted] is dejected and dispirited, having put much effort into trying to expand it, to no avail.
3. [Redacted] is prepared to pass the post of Secretary, which is the lynchpin of the organisation, over to any volunteers. Accordingly, Dave MORRIS is poised and "waiting in the wings" and in all probability will take over as group secretary within a fortnight. MORRIS has stated his concern about FLAG and has also made it known that he is not prepared to let it 'go-under'.
