SUBJECT London
Sinn Fein

Reference to Papers

335/71/84

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "[redacted] Privacy" in a conversation with "[redacted] Privacy" has been overheard to say he had been told by Tony KEARNS, London Organiser of Sinn Fein, that he (KEARNS) had received instructions from Sean STEPHENSON, of Sinn Fein Headquarters, Dublin, that Michael O'KANE should be given the "fullest co-operation". "[redacted] Privacy" queried this but "[redacted] Privacy" could not add anything further. It was obvious from the ensuing conversation however that they were both surprised at such an instruction having been issued, as hitherto Sinn Fein Dublin had never held the O'KANE brothers in very high esteem."

3. Special Branch references are given in the attached appendix.
