3. The greater part of the meeting concerned the new Bulletin for the AIL (West London). The paper would be ready for sale on 15.7.72 and it was arranged that sales should take place in public houses in the Hammersmith, Fulham, Baling and Acton areas. Six hundred copies would be printed for sale at 5 p. each.

4. The remainder of the meeting centred around the AIL (Central Committee) Conference to be held on Sunday 16.7.72 (previously reported) between 2.30 pm and 6.30 pm at the Workers Music Association, 234 Westbourne Park Road, W11. Discussion revolved around recent developments in Northern Ireland and their impact on the future role of the AIL. Privacy, a member of the Irish Solidarity Campaign, rebuked the AIL for its attitude towards the IRA, and urged stronger support for the military struggle in Ulster. However, most persons at the meeting were undecided as to what should be done and felt it would be better to wait until the situation became more clear.

5. Amongst those present were:-
