Remarks: It was agreed among those present that the activities of Havering V.S.C. will be confined to distributing leaflets in the Romford and Harold Hill districts and perhaps "fly-posting" of "October 27th" posters on sites to be selected in the near future.

The contents of the leaflet were finally agreed by the Committee and [redacted] Privacy undertook to print 2,000 over this week-end.

It was also agreed that there would be little local activity until the week preceding the 27th. October, so as to preclude the possibility of the campaign "running out of steam".

[redacted] Privacy announced his resignation from the local Labour Party, owing to the fact that he no longer wished to be the position of the [redacted] local branch and did not feel that he could continue as an ordinary member.

The Committee anticipated a maximum of 100 demonstrators joining the Havering V.S.C. contingent on October, 27th.
