SUBJECT Notting Hill Spartacus League

Reference to Papers 400/71/132

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "A meeting of the Notting Hill Spartacus League was held at 17A Rendle Street, W11, the home of Piers CORBYN, on Wednesday 19 January 1972 from 8.15pm to 11.15pm. Eight persons were present.

3. The meeting was chaired by Piers CORBYN and was concerned with the future activities of the Notting Hill Spartacus League Branch. Privacy briefly outlined the activities of the Notting Hill Red Defence Group and this was followed by a deep and involved discussion of SL Assistance to the Group. Although Privacy took great pains to point out that the majority of people involved in the Group were not members of the International Marxist Group and were completely non-sectarian and had no wish to be otherwise, the discussion centred around how the Notting Hill faction of the IMG could take over, run and use the organisation for recruitment to the IMG.

4. The most prominent speaker was Privacy a somewhat vain individual. He argued heatedly and at length with Privacy but as usual nothing substantial emerged save that Privacy and Privacy should continue as the official representatives in the Notting Hill Red Defence Group on behalf of the SL.

5. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to routine branch matters which produced little of interest.

6. Among those present were:-

- Privacy Piers CORBYN Privacy

7. Special Branch references are given in the attached Appendix.
