Special Report }

19th day of September 1968

SUBJECT Anti-
Imperialist
Solidarity Movement.

Reference to Papers

RF 400/68/228

An organisation called the Anti-Imperialist Solidarity Movement has recently been formed at [Privacy] by [Privacy] He has also enlisted the support of [Privacy]

Its purpose is to campaign for a very militant demonstration by the Vietnam Solidarity Campaign on October 27th, and to insist on a large assembly in Grosvenor Square.

In political outlook [Privacy] is a communist but his views do not accord with either the orthodox Communist Party or the Maoists, and he is persona non grata with both groups.

[Privacy] is a political adventurer, formerly a communist, for a long period a Committee of 100 activist, and recently a member of Notting Hill V.S.C.

The Anti-Imperialist Solidarity Movement cannot be expected to have much influence on the V.S.C. controlling bodies, but as will be seen from the attached leaflet, its potential for mischief is very high.
