³ For the past three years D.C. ³ HN303 has been very successfully engaged in a sensitive area of Branch work. He is due to be transferred to other duties this summer. In the earlier part of 1976, he suffered from a loss of morale, caused by a combination of unavoidable changes in operational conditions and the illness of ^{3A} family member, which dampened his normal enthusiasm for work. However, he appears to have mastered his problems and, during the latter part of 1976, has showed signs of returning to the high standard of work for which he was previously noted. He is a very capable and intelligent officer.
