3. Dr HALL spoke from 7.15 pm to 8.30 pm on the various aspects of Chinese life and the application of Chairman Mao thought. He was extremely pro-China and gave glowing reports of their progress in every field. He gave much stress to the overall attitudes of the people which he felt were of more importance than actual written laws and rules.

4. There followed some questions from the floor, which were all presented and answered in moderate terms. The meeting was very orderly and the majority of those present were respectable looking traditionally dressed men and women. However, there were some fifty Chinese present, plus a small hippy element."

5. Special Branch references are given in the attached Appendix.
