SUBJECT

2. "Recent meetings of the Walthamstow Branch of the Socialist Workers Party have simply been business discussions held at the home of [Redacted] Privacy; even so, these have been suspended during the run-up to the General Election and all that Branch members are now told are the locations of the various meeting points from which Anti-Nazi League literature is to be distributed.

Socialist Workers Party

3. This is in marked contrast to the activity of the Leytonstone Branch (the other branch within the District). Until recently, its members were lacking in any enthusiasm, but - thanks to the efforts of [Redacted] Privacy and Julia POYNTER - their mood has now changed. This having been said, however, it remains to be seen how the Leytonstone Branch, as well as the Walthamstow Branch, progresses in the future."
