Remarks: This meeting was called by MANCHANDA for the express purpose of taking [Privacy] to task for his failure in his duties as the secretary of the London Branch of the B.V.S.F.

Since March 9th 1969, [Privacy] has been in open conflict with MANCHANDA, (this matter is being dealt with in a separate report).

MANCHANDA said that he had made repeated attempts to get [Privacy] to account for his failure to conduct himself in a "correct" manner, but [Privacy] was obviously intent on sabotaging B.V.S.F. for his own opportunist motives. MANCHANDA said that he had in fact received [Privacy]'s resignation on 10th May, 1969, and he called on members to discuss this matter. As a result [Privacy] then read a letter which he had prepared, addressed to the National Executive of B.V.S.F. calling its attention to the fact that [Privacy] had not performed his duties as secretary for some months and that he should therefore be called upon to explain his actions. This letter was then signed by all those present, and apart from further general discussion on the role of the [Privacy] and their supporters, no other topics were raised.
