1. The following information has been received:-

2. "The annual general meeting of the Tri-Continental Committee on 17 and 18 January 1970 in Conway Hall decided on a change of name to the BRITAIN TRICONTINENTAL ORGANISATION (BTO). This was to make it clear that whilst they support the aims of the parent Tri-Continental body - the Organisation of Solidarity of the People of Africa, Asia and Latin America (OSPAAL) which is based in Havana, Cuba, they are in fact a national, British based organisation with many branches in this country."

3. The Tri-Continental Committee is the subject of 400/69/237.
