SUBJECT

1. The following information has been received from a reliable source:-

2. "On Tuesday 18th November, 1980 at 7.30pm at the Lancefield Building, Beethoven Street, W9, the North-West London Socialist Workers Party held a District Committee meeting, attended by fifteen persons.

Reference to Papers

3. The meeting was chaired by Ros GARDNER, and began with on the British Movement march through the area planned for 23.11.1980 given by [Privacy]. He stated that there should be one steward, for each group of eight persons, who should have a good knowledge of the Paddington area so that they could break off from the proposed counter-march and make their way through the backstreets to either Speakers Corner or the route of the BM march. Some members present stated that they had no intention of going on the counter-march at all and would be taking their supporters to the Speakers Corner area where they would endeavour to locate BM members in the local pubs.
